Pray for Christians in Nigeria:
Latest headline since the events that have been in the news:
from Open Doors

We have extremely tragic news to report. Only 18 days after he was kidnapped by Boko Haram, Rev. Lawan Andimi, a senior leader in the Christian Association of Nigeria (CAN) and father of nine children, has been violently executed.

On Twitter, Nigerian journalist Ahmed Salkida reported that Rev. Lawan was beheaded on Monday afternoon, January 20. Salkida noted that he had obtained a video of the execution and had informed authorities. Open Doors has been able to verify the report is true.

From the Pastor's Heart:

Over years God answered prayers from our prayer time during service. We prayed for Betty Haley's grand-daughter with stage 4 brain cancer. It disappeared and she's still well. Once Damian's parents sent a message to pray for him, he'd gone missing. When we said, "Amen" Nathan Gallegos yelled from the back of the church, "Damien's here!" Once Louise McDade prayed for rain in the midst of a horrible drought and after church an un-predicted thundershower, a storm, covered our city. Just 2 weeks ago, Donovan Romero prayed over the wildfires in Australia. The next day, the newspaper said the firefighters went from the defensive to the offensive due to rain in a dry season. These are just a few of the many answers to prayer we've seen. In setting aside this prayer time it's meant that my sermons are much shorter! Not asking for "Amens!" What seems obvious is that the Lord is telling us something. He wants us to pray, and do it regularly. He wants us to be a church that expects God to do mighty things because we ask Him to. I believe prayer is a way for us to know How good God is and how much He cares.

"So I say to you: Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives; he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks, the door will be opened. Which of you fathers, if your son asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead? Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? If you then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!"

(Luke 11:9).
